NEWSY LETTER FROM SUFFOLK

James Brittle Sentenced to Five Years in State Prison.

NEW TRIAL ASKED FOR

Judge Atkinson Raises Sam Beale's Bond From $10,000 to $20,000 — Confederate Veterans of Southampton and Nearby Counties Preparing For Celebration at Downe Park 27th Inst.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)

Suffolk, Va., Sept. 19.—James Brittle gets five years in State's prison. That was the verdict brought last night by an Isle of Wight jury after a seven days' trial.

Counsel for the defense moved for a new trial. Argument on the motion will be heard September 28. The lawyers, of whom there are four for the accused, may move for a change of venue because of the local prejudice against the defendants.

Owing to the gravity of the charges Judge Atkinson has seen fit to raise Sam Beale's bond from $10,000 to $20,000. At the preliminary hearing it was fixed at $3,000, and was first raised at the beginning of the County Court trial last Tuesday. Beale has strong financial backing, and could probably give surety in $50,000.

Beale and Ed. White, the latter colored, are in jail. They went in default of $5,000 bonds, to which figure their bonds had been raised from $1,000.

The cases against Beale and White will be called in October. Beale's case, perhaps the last. The special session of court has adjourned.

OLD VETS' OUTING.

The old Confederate veterans of Southampton and nearby counties are fixed for a big celebration at Downe Park September 27. There was a mass meeting of vets held to-day at Courtland, in the county court house, for the purpose of perfecting plans.

"Governor" A. M. Brownley, of Franklin, was president, and Colonel L. R. Edwards, of the same town, was secretary.

Judge J. B. Prince, of Courtland, made a speech in which he said there might be many vets in Southampton who didn't know he was in the war, because he was not associated in service with soldiers of that county, but was a member of General Wade Hampton's staff.

Committees were appointed from each magisterial district to raise funds. Fifty dollars will be appropriated to pay for a band. Captain Wells was made chairman of a committee to see about dinner. Company 1, of Franklin, will be invited to take part.

MRS. CHURN ROBBED.

While at church a few evenings ago Mrs. Essie Churn, who lives at No. 5 Institute street, was robbed of $3.60 in cash and a gold watch. The property stolen was resting in a bureau drawer in a bed chamber. The burglar forced entrance through the back door, whose lock was taken off. He got the valuables and left the drawer and door open.

THE LEADING WOMAN.

Of Mrs. Brune, the leading lady with Frederick Ward, the Baltimore News, 16th instant, says, in part: "The Juliet of the evening, Mrs. Minnie Little, was watched with not a little curiosity. Play-goers are always eager to scan and analyze the work of young actresses in this most trying part. The impersonation last night was marked by distinct ability and charm, and also by indisputable promise of fine development in the future. The balcony scene, always so difficult, was very cleverly acted, and
